4. Individual Security Deposit

Security Deposit for individual works (i.e Individual Security Deposit) shall be 25% more than the amount of earnest money calculated as per the scale laid down in para-3 above (i.e 1.25 times) based on the tendered cost, subject to the provision that in no case the individual security shall exceed Rs.18,75,000/-.

5. A Contractor, who is not enlisted with Border Roads Organisation/who is enlisted but has not executed Standing Security Bond, while submitting tender shall be required to furnish Earnest Money along with the tender as calculated in accordance with the scale given in Para 3 above. However, if the tender submitted by such a contractor is accepted, he will be required to lodge Security Deposit (Individual Security Deposit for the specific work only) with the Principal Controller of Defence Accounts, calculated as per Par 4 above, within 30 days of the receipt by the contractor of notification of acceptance of his tender, failing which this sum shall be recovered from the subsequent bill of the contractor. The Earnest Money will be refunded to the contractor after the Security Deposit/Individual Security Deposit is lodged by the contractor or recovered from payments due to him.
6. Administrative instructions to give effect to the above decisions, the procedure to be followed for affecting the change, procedure to be followed during the interim period, etc will be issued by the DGBR.
7. No Security Deposit will be taken from Government Departments, Public Sector Undertaking, Cantonment Board or Municipalities.
8. Border Roads Regulations will be appropriately amended in due course.
9. These orders shall come into force as per notification/ instructions issued by DGBR/E8.
10. This issues with the concurrence of Min of Def(Fin/BR) vide their ID No.19(6)/BRS/2016/(8/BRS/17) dated 03.03.2017.

Yours faithfully,
